29	generation	0, 1, 3, 5	My third recommendation - which I'll just touch briefly on and let Senator Lugar talk about in more detail - is that we need to start thinking creatively about some of the next-generation efforts on nuclear, biological, and chemical weapons. And a report by our own intelligence agencies has concluded that al Qaeda is successfully using the war in Iraq to recruit a new generation of terrorists for its war on America. Each and every time, a new generation has risen up and done what's needed to be done. Today we are called once more - and it is time for our generation to answer that call. Let us be the generation that reshapes our economy to compete in the digital age. And as our economy changes, let's be the generation that ensures our nation's workers are sharing in our prosperity. Let's be the generation that ends poverty in America. Let's be the generation that finally tackles our health care crisis. Let's be the generation that says right here, right now, that we will have universal health care in America by the end of the next president's first term. Most of all, let's be the generation that never forgets what happened on that September day and confront the terrorists with everything we've got. Let us be the generation that begins this work. And if you will join me in this improbable quest, if you feel destiny calling, and see as I see, a future of endless possibility stretching before us; if you sense, as I sense, that the time is now to shake off our slumber, and slough off our fear, and make good on the debt we owe past and future generations, then I'm ready to take up the cause, and march with you, and work with you. It is that promise that has always set this country apart - that through hard work and sacrifice, each of us can pursue our individual dreams but still come together as one American family, to ensure that the next generation can pursue their dreams as well. Now is the time to change our bankruptcy laws, so that your pensions are protected ahead of CEO bonuses; and the time to protect Social Security for future generations. And just as we keep our keep our promise to the next generation here at home, so must we keep America's promise abroad. The Bush-McCain foreign policy has squandered the legacy that generations of Americans -- Democrats and Republicans - have built, and we are here to restore that legacy.
